We've had the BEST first week!

Math Skills

This week we have been working on counting by ones.

This Week We...

We had a wonderful first week in kindergarten! I can already tell that this going to be a great year! We have the sweetest group of kiddos. We have worked really hard this week learning our daily routines and responsibilities. We are really looking forward to a great year with our new school family!

What we've been reading...

During each story throughout the week we have been learning new vocabulary words. We've searched for the new words in each book, have discussed their meanings, and used them in sentences.

Our School is a Family
New Vocabulary: perhaps, respect, connection, unique

Interrupting Chicken
New Vocabulary: interrupting, nibble, stray, upset

Try using some of these new vocabulary words with your little ones during your everyday conversation.
