THOMAS COUNTY SCHOOLS

EMPLOYEE
CODE OF CONDUCT

---

Dear Colleagues,

We have an exceptional workforce in Thomas County Public Schools (TCPS) that is strongly committed to the highest standards of ethical conduct and professionalism. Our employees work tirelessly every day to ensure that we deliver the highest quality education for our students to prepare them for success beyond graduation. Nevertheless, as an organization committed to continuous improvement, we can always improve our operational processes.

The creation of this Employee Code of Conduct is an effort to make clearer the expectations of employees in how we all work together to ensure the safety and well-being of all of our students, fellow employees, and the broader community. This Code of Conduct seeks to bring together, in one document, a summary of the legitimate standards of conduct that TCPS and the broader community expect employees to follow in carrying out their important roles in the school system's mission. In addition, the Code of Conduct summarizes the disciplinary procedures that we use to address situations where employees fall short of our expectations.

I deeply appreciate the collaboration and input from the broad range of stakeholders who contributed to the development of this Employee Code of Conduct. During this school year, we will monitor the implementation of the Code of Conduct and continue to gather feedback so we can identify any clarifications or revisions that should be incorporated going forward.

We hope you find the Employee Code of Conduct informative. Thank you for your dedicated service to TCPS students and families.

Respectfully,
Lisa Williams, Ed.D.
Superintendent

1.0 Introduction

Thomas County Public Schools (TCPS) is committed to an organizational culture that furthers our core values. All employees must make every effort to create and maintain safe and healthy learning environments and shall serve as positive role models for students and set good examples in conduct, manners, dress and grooming.

All employees are expected to interact with all students, parents/guardians, colleagues at all levels, and the community with the utmost integrity and professionalism. This Employee Code of Conduct provides a general overview of the legitimate expectations and standards of conduct that TCPS and the broader community expect employees, including student teachers and other interns, to follow in carrying out their important part of the district's mission.

The Thomas County Board of Education expects each employee to maintain the highest standards of conduct and act in a mature and responsible manner at all times. Employees shall not engage in activities which violate federal, state or local laws or which, in any way, diminish the integrity, efficiency or discipline of the district.

In addition, this Employee Code of Conduct summarizes the disciplinary procedures that TCPS uses to address situations where employees fall short of our expectations and standards of conduct. The Employee Code of Conduct applies to all TCPS employees, both certificated and non-certificated, full-time and part-time, as well as substitutes and others employed in a temporary or seasonal capacity.

Many aspects of this Code of Conduct are based on applicable Thomas County Board of Education policies, TCPS regulations, as well as state and federal laws. This Code of Conduct is not intended to replace these resources, but rather to provide a one-document summary and reference point of appropriate items that would be useful to all employees. This Code of Conduct is intended as a guide and a help to all school staff. It sets out standards of conduct which staff are expected to follow when within, or representing TCPS, any school, or any program associated with TCPS. This code is not exhaustive but is written to assist staff, and it is important that staff should seek and take advice and guidance if necessary. If you do not understand the expectations explained in this Code of Conduct, you should ask a supervisor or administrator.

Please note that this Code of Conduct is not a contract, and the policy and legal requirements that it references are subject to change and supersede the statements contained in this publication.

1.1 Expectations for Employee Conduct

TCPS expects all employees to perform their work with requisite skill and knowledge; maintain the highest standards of responsible and ethical conduct; and obey all applicable laws, policies, and regulations. Under no circumstances may any employee engage in any of the following activities or behavior: immorality, misconduct in office (which includes knowing failure to report suspected child abuse or neglect), insubordination, incompetence, or willful neglect of duty. Whenever an employee faces a matter that requires an ethical decision concerning his or her behavior, TCPS expects the individual to consider whether it might violate a law, policy, regulation, or professional standard of responsible and ethical conduct.

Equally important, the employee should refrain from any action or conduct that - -

- threatens the safety of students, fellow employees, or the broader community;
- undermines the employee's professional integrity; and/or
- makes the employee unfit to perform his or her assigned duties.

An employee's failure to perform expected behaviors, as well as an employee's performance of inappropriate behaviors (including, but not limited to, the "Do nots" listed on the following pages), may subject the employee to disciplinary action, up to and including suspension or termination. Employees should understand that not all inappropriate, improper, or unethical conduct may be expressly referenced in this publication. Rather, the examples on the following pages are illustrative and non-exhaustive. Conduct that is not expressly listed nonetheless may warrant disciplinary action. For example, this code of conduct does not attempt to list every standard of employee behavior grounded in common sense or commonly understood sound practices.

2.0 Conduct in the Work Environment

In no case shall dress code and personal appearance standards for employees be less than those prescribed for students in the student handbook. Any money collected at any school, at any school function, from students anywhere, or as part of a fundraiser to benefit students, student organizations, or a charity, must be deposited into a school managed account at the school or into the account of one of the two authorized booster organizations - - the athletic boosters or the band boosters. No organization or informal group of parents, other than the band boosters or athletic boosters, is authorized to open a bank account on behalf of a school, school group, or student organization. Any organization that is authorized to open a bank account must use its own federal identification number and is prohibited from using the school district's federal identification number. School-related functions may not be operated on a cash basis. School personnel must provide a receipt to the student or parent for all funds collected (except in the case where it is not practical such as at a concession stand or at the entrance to a school play or dance). Any money collected from students or on behalf of students or as part of any fundraiser must be deposited into the appropriate school account and expenses must be paid from that account by the school bookkeeper, principal, or principal designee. Sufficient documentation should be maintained by employees collecting money. Employees must not commingle (mix) their personal money with school system money nor should they make cash purchases from the proceeds of a fundraiser or concession stand. School funds should be left in a secure location at school and should never be taken home or left in an unattended vehicle. Any loss or theft of funds must be reported immediately to the appropriate administrator and to law enforcement. Every effort should be made by employees to submit funds within three days of receipt to the school bookkeeper who will issue a receipt to the employee for the submitted funds. Employees may not direct parents to manage funds in a manner that is inconsistent with these guidelines. Any employee who has knowledge of improper fund management of an organization should notify the school district administration. Employees who fail to follow the financial expectations of the school system will be subject to disciplinary action which may include termination. Certificated employees who fail to follow the proper financial guidance of the school district may be referred to the Georgia Professional Standards Commission if a violation of the Georgia Educator Code of Ethics has occurred.

3.0 EXCLUSIVITY OF SERVICE

Staff's off-duty hours are their personal concern, but they should avoid a position where duty and private interests conflict with each other. This includes the following:

- Staff members making online associations/friendships with current pupils via social networking.
- Staff members using texting/email facilities on either their mobile phone or computer device to communicate with current pupils.

The school district does not seek to preclude staff unreasonably from undertaking additional employment but staff are required to devote their time, attention and abilities to TCPS duties during working hours and to act in the best interests of the school at all times. Accordingly, staff must not undertake any employment or engagement which might interfere with the performance of their TCPS duties or conflict with the interests of the school district without permission from the superintendent. It follows that, regardless of whether you are employed on a full-time or fractional contract, you are required to notify the Director of Administrative Services of any employment or engagement which you intend to undertake whilst in the employment of the school system (including any such employment or engagement which commenced before your employment began with the school system or prior to the adoption of this Code of Conduct).

Staff must not accept employment with another school district during their contract period without first requesting and receiving release from their contract with TCPS. Certificated employees who fail to fulfill their contracts will be charged liquidated damages as provided in their contracts and reported to the Georgia Professional Standards Commission for breach of contract.

5.0 Ethical Conduct with Colleagues, Parents/Guardians, and the Community

Employees are expected to treat parents/guardians, other employees, and members of the community professionally and respectfully and comply with all nondiscrimination laws and policies in their relationships with other adults.

6.0 Application and Enforcement of the Employee Code of Conduct

While this Code of Conduct focuses on actions that may subject an employee to discipline, there are many instances that may, or should, be handled appropriately through a professional growth process.

6.1 Corrective and Progressive Discipline

TCPS is committed to fair and consistent treatment of employees in a disciplinary process that is both corrective and progressive.

6.2 Non-disciplinary Corrective Actions

In some circumstances, a supervisor or manager may determine that an employee's conduct does not warrant formal disciplinary action but does warrant a clarification as to expectations regarding future conduct. In such cases, the supervisor or manager may provide written guidance as to expectations regarding future conduct. Such a document is not considered disciplinary in nature, but a confidential record will be maintained because it may provide context for future disciplinary action if the employee's conduct does not conform to the communicated expectations.

6.3 Disciplinary actions

Typical disciplinary actions include the following:

1. Oral or written warning
2. Letter of Direction
3. Written reprimand from the superintendent
4. Suspension without pay
5. Demotion
6. Removal from position
7. Termination

TCPS is not obligated to use any specific level of progressive discipline or to utilize the actions in the order listed above. Rather, the specific facts of each situation will determine which of the listed disciplinary actions will be appropriate. In making a determination as to the appropriate level of disciplinary action in each case, consideration of mitigating factors (such as an employee's history of service with a clean record or an indication of less culpability on the part of the employee) or aggravating factors (such as placing others at risk of serious injury, demonstrating intentional wrongdoing, or indifference to the effect of an action or the outcome on others) may be considered.

Lack of awareness or knowledge of this Code of Conduct, or applicable policies or regulations, is not a defense to a charge of misconduct. Except for serious infractions, including but not limited to the prohibited criminal conduct discussed on the following pages, the lowest appropriate level of disciplinary action should be applied initially to focus on ensuring that an employee understands expectations and does not repeat the inappropriate conduct. In general, discipline should progress to a more severe level after a lesser disciplinary action has been implemented and proven to be ineffective.

Nevertheless, a more serious infraction may warrant suspension or termination, even for a first-time offense, or repeated offenses, depending on the circumstances. This may be the case even when the infraction violates a standard of conduct that is not specifically enumerated in writing but involves common-sense application of governing principles or criminal law.

7.0 Media

Other than on matters of publicity, only the principal or superintendent is authorized to speak or send any communication on behalf of the school to members of the press or broadcast media. This decision is to avoid any embarrassment or unfair pressure on staff. This authorization may be extended by the superintendent or principal to other staff members.

8.0 Georgia Educator Code of Ethics

All TCPS employees are expected to abide by the Georgia Educator Code of Ethics. Certificated employees who violate one or more standards of the Georgia Educator Code of Ethics will be referred to Ethics Division of the Georgia Professional Standards Commission.

(1) Introduction. The Code of Ethics for Educators defines the professional behavior of educators in Georgia and serves as a guide to ethical conduct. The Georgia Professional Standards Commission has adopted standards that represent the conduct generally accepted by the education profession. The code defines unethical conduct justifying disciplinary sanction and provides guidance for protecting the health, safety and general welfare of students and educators, and assuring the citizens of Georgia a degree of accountability within the education profession.

(2) Definitions

(a) "Breach of contract" occurs when an educator fails to honor a signed contract for employment with a school/school system by resigning in a manner that does not meet the guidelines established by the Georgia Professional Standards Commission.

(b) "Certificate" refers to any teaching, service, or leadership certificate, license, or permit issued by authority of the Professional Standards Commission.

(c) "Child endangerment" occurs when an educator disregards a substantial and/or unjustifiable risk of bodily harm to the student.

(d) "Educator" is a teacher, school or school system administrator, or other education personnel who holds a certificate issued by the Professional Standards Commission and persons who have applied for but have not yet received a certificate. For the purposes of the Code of Ethics for Educators, "educator" also refers to paraprofessionals, aides, and substitute teachers.

(e) "Student" is any individual enrolled in the state's public or private schools from preschool through grade 12 or any individual under the age of 18. For the purposes of the Code of Ethics for Educators, the enrollment period for a graduating student ends on August 31 of the year of graduation.

(f) "Complaint" is any written and signed statement from a local board, the state board, or one or more individual residents of this state filed with the Professional Standards Commission alleging that an educator has breached one or more of the standards in the Code of Ethics for Educators. A "complaint" will be deemed a request to investigate.
