C2MI Education Scholarship

Mr. Derrick Maurice Ingram is a native of Thomasville, Georgia and a 1990 graduate of Thomasville High School. He is the son of Harriett Ingram who is an alumna as well. Mr. Ingram will forever be grateful for the influence and an impact great educator had on his life and is honored to refer to them as role models.

Presently, Mr. Ingram is a retired Master Gunnery Sergeant (MGySgt) and employed as a logistician for Prescient. He is a life member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Inc., life member of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), life member of the National Montford Point Marine Association Inc., and a Master Mason of Prince Hall affiliation. Mr. Ingram and his wife Carla are the proud parents of two sons; Caleb and Caden. As the father of two boys, he is concerned about creating the career pathway of minority students; henceforth, the scholarship is given in honor of their two sons.
