"ENTERTAINMENT PROVIDED BY WINGS A & B"

This has been a very short week due to Irma. I hope everyone had little to no damage. We have been told that we will NOT have to make up those 2 days.

Wednesday I sent home a zip-lock bag with flash cards in it. These are the words for August and September. Please practice these words each night. Your child will be tested on these words every few weeks.

Each month I will send home a sheet with the words for that month. All you will need to do is cut them apart and add them to the bag.

Words of the Week:
we, it, in, he, for, me
Reviewed all words

Shared Reading Poetry:

Higglety Pigglety Pop

Guided Reading:

The Kissing Hand

Word Study Letters: Bb, Mm, and Ss

Math: counting to 100, counting and writing numbers to 10 and explaining the location of shapes.

Why play is important: At play children are learning how to make and carry out a plan.

Homework- Have Fun with it!

- Read at least 1 book to your child each night and fill out the reading log. Ask them questions about the story.
- Ask your child to name different shapes around the house.
- Have your child tell you the numbers they see in the newspaper or on sale ads.
- Go on a word hunt. Place sight words around the house and ask your child to find that word.
