

GEORGIA RECOVERY PROJECT

Crisis Counseling Program

The Crisis Counseling Program helps individuals and communities recover from natural disasters and public health emergencies like COVID-19 through supportive outreach and psychoeducation.

Services

- Virtual public education webinars on stress management
- Virtual group counseling
- Written material on stress management
- Virtual Individual counseling

For individuals, families, or professionals who need emergency assistance 24/7 for problems related to mental health, drugs, alcohol, or developmental disabilities:

Georgia
Department of Behavioral Health & Developmental Disabilities
Georgia Recovery Project

To contact the Georgia Recovery Project contact the Georgia COVID-19 Emotional Support Line

In Southwest Georgia
contact
229-201-9612
Tanya.welch@dbhdd.ga.gov